PERFORMING IN MULTIPLE LANGUAGES

Having efficiently hosted and performed for countless events ranging from private, corporate, to even grassroots organisations, Kaitlyn has an unique point that makes her a popular choice- Her versatility and ability to capture the audiences' attention.

Starting out as an "oldies singer" despite her young age, she was nicknamed "Mini Teresa Teng" as she specialises in performing Teresa Teng's songs in nursing homes and hospitals. (She is an active volunteer, too!)

Her repertoire of songs range from as early as 1930s to the latest hits, and she performs in multiple languages + dialects, such as Mandarin, English, Bahasa Melayu/Indonesia, Cantonese, Hokkien, Japanese, Thai, Spanish and Tagalog.

MUSIC

Following the success of Kaitlyn's debut single "Withstand" that got into Top 20s of Apple iTunes Singapore charts in June 2020, she went on to release several more singles ("Fate", "Promise" and "A Dream").

Moving forward, she entered the international market after being invited to work with Hong Kong singer-songwriter, Dan Nieclio, and released their first collab single "Pursuing Memories" in February 2021.

She made several appearances on different shows,

HOSTING

Apart from singing and performing, Kaitlyn is also a bilingual emcee whom can host fluently in English and Mandarin (and conversational Cantonese).

She is highly sought-after in wedding shows, community shows, corporate functions, roadshows... You name it!

Her bubbly personality is something audiences can resonate with, and her ability to connect with them is something that clients are looking for to bring optimal entertainment.

make me improve in the shortest time. My 2nd vocal instructor Kaitlyn is really good in teaching and her teaching style benefitted me to improve tremendously. My makeup coach Renee is very patient and nice in teaching me the makeup skills. Also, Renee is very encouraging when I keep on think that it is very difficult in mastering the makeup
